 NE VARIETUR N.O. MAY 14, 1924. (SIGNED) PORTER PARKER, JUDGE.

Stat of Louisiana Parish of Orleans City of New Orleans. May the, 20, 1890.

By these presents, I America Ann Bowie widow of John Jones Bowie, Now residing in the City Parish & State aforesaid being of sound mind though bodily afflicted do publish make & declare this to be my last will and Testament, Thus wholly written dated and signed by me, & in my own hand writing.

I revoke all wills or Codicils heretofor made, or purported to have been made by me. I own a small property in Algiers 5th District of New Orleans, said property Number, 20 & 22 Powder Street, between Peter & Alic Street which constitute all my available Estate. I have three children, one son William P. Kirkland. Living in Sacramento California. & two Daughters. Viz Martha Bowie, Burns, whose residence I do not know, & Elizabeth Ann Kirkland Gardiner, of Algiers Louisiana. I have already advanced to the first two named children, William & Martha, in my life time the amount coming to them in my estate. I will & bequeath to my Daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Kirkland Gardiner, all the property I possess at my death, to go to her not merely to make her share as near equal as my circumstances admit to the shares all ready given & advanced to her Brother & Sister aforesaid but I give her this property as a remunerative donation as the amount herein to her given does not even equal the value of her services to me for which I desire to remunerate her, these are my last wishes. - - - - -

Written and signed by me at Algiers, Orleans Parish Louisiana this 20 day of May 1890. - - - - -
