The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil
For thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil,
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Martha Lue Rakes Featherston, 91, of Bentonville, AR passed away Thursday, March 2, 2017 at Circle of Life Legacy Village Hospice in Bentonville. She was born November 6, 1925 in the Shady Grove Community near Pea Ridge, AR to Charles Parker and Blanche Ellen Walker Rakes.

Martha Lue's parents relocated her young family to Board Camp Community near Mena, AR, when she was a small child. She attended Board Camp and Cherry Hill schools. She moved to Houston after graduating high school to live with family and worked in a munitions factory during World War II. Later, she attended and graduated, from Springfield Beauty Academy in Springfield, MO. She also worked for many years in Bentonville and out of her home.

Martha Lue loved and was devoted to her family and to the Lord. She was very creative and a master of many talents such as quilting, basket weaving, gardening, and home cooking.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 62 years, Glenn; and a brother, C.P. Rakes Jr.

Martha is survived by her son, Sam Featherston and wife, Crystal of Bentonville, AR; a sister, Patsy White and husband, Ken, of Rogers, AR; two grandchildren, Chandra Perkins and husband, Matt of Bentonville, AR, Kayla Geigle and husband, Weston of Bentonville, AR; and four great grandchildren, Dylan, Samuel and John Perkins and Luke Geigle.
